

First Nations Chiefs of Police Association
Secretary-Treasurer

Jerel (Jerry) Swamp Akwesasne Mohawk Police Service

Chief Jerel (Jerry) Swamp has 25 years of policing experience in his home Community of Akwesasne. He joined the Akwesasne Mohawk Police Service in 1991 and during his career he has held the ranks of Constable, Detective Sergeant and Acting Deputy Chief before becoming the Police Services Chief of Police in 2009.

Chief Swamp spent 15 years conducting major criminal investigations which included death investigations, trafficking and conspiracies related to weapons and controlled substances between Canada and the United States.

He is a past recipient of the First Nations Chiefs of Police outstanding service award for his work in numerous organized crime investigations in and around the Akwesasne Territory. He is also the recipient of the Governor General's Exemplary Service Medal in 2011. In 2013 Chief Swamp was the recipient of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Award for his outstanding contribution to First Nations Policing in Canada.

Chief Swamp currently sits on the board of directors of the local Victims Services and Koala Place, a local Youth Advocacy center. Chief Swamp sits on the national committee for the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police on Policing with First Nations, Metis and Inuit Peoples. He has presented on many topics across Canada including Organized Crime in native communities, Critical Incidents and management in Native Communities, Policing in a multi-jurisdictional location as well as operational planning and search warrant drafting.

Jerry Swamp, Secretary-Treasurer
First Nations Chiefs of Police Association

Email: Secretary-Treasurer@fncpa.ca

Jerry Swamp, Chief of Police
c/o Akwesasne Mohawk Police
P.O. Box 579 (73 Sweetgrass Lane)
Cornwall, Ontario K6H 5T3

Tel: (613) 575-2340 ext 2507 | Fax: (613) 575-2234

Email: Jerry.Swamp@akwesasne.ca

